

Joining Pangea Net

Our Law Firm is pleased to announce to its esteemed clientele that as of 16 December 2014, it has become a full member of the Pangea Net, an international network of independent law firms founded in 2009 now consisting of 26 members from jurisdictions all over the world. Pangea Network operates on the basis of one member law firm per country thus ensuring a high degree of close personal contact between each of its members. All applications to join Pangea Net are carefully considered by Pangea Net's executive board, and new member firms are only admitted if they meet the pre-defined membership criteria.

PANGEA NET
International Network of Independent Law Firms

In the jurisdictions which Pangea Net covers, its members are medium and medium-large size commercial law firms with an international focus providing a broad range of commercial legal services which include corporate, foreign investment, international trade, M&A, banking, tax, anti-trust, intellectual property, IT and technology, labour and employment, construction, real estate, environmental and zoning, public procurement, litigation and arbitration.

All Pangea Net members come together for an annual conference once a year which for 2015 will be taking place in Constantinople in June.

Our Law Firm's joining Pangea Net signifies our commitment to our clients that we aim and strive to provide outstanding legal services and serve each client's international needs through the close cooperation between high quality law firms in a trusted environment.
